The City of the Dead.

We are indebted to our excellent friend, George Drew, for the following abstract of interments, during the year 1872, in the Burlingame Cemetery. The record is a sad one, and many of our readers, as they glance over the long list, will drop a tear in memory of the dear ones who now sleep so quietly in the City of the Dead.

Jan 21—Nancy Bell Burket, Burlingame. Aged five years.

March 19—R. J. Craig, Dragoon Creek. Aged 47 years.
