LATEST ITEMS OF NEWS IN THE DISTRI

News of Spokane Valley

West Valley High.

The boys of the West Valley high school entertained their "dads" Saturday night in the school auditorium. A "smokeless smoker" was held.

Pasadena Park.

Wilawanita Camp Fire group met Friday night at the home of Mrs. E. C. Barlow. Henrietta Schroeder, torch bearer, conducted the council fire. Six new members were admitted, one by initiation and two were transferred from Spokane.

Officers were elected as follows: Myrtle Johnson, president; Gladys Johnson, vice president; song leader and assistant guardian, Henrietta Schroeder; Dorothy Woodard, secretary, and Faye Felton, treasurer.

East Spokane Heights.

Mrs. J. J. McAllister of Long Beach, Cal., returned home Saturday after a week's visit with her brother, H. C. Best, of this community.

Miss Iona Johnson has returned to the home of her sister, Mrs. H. C. Best, after a week's visit with her cousin, Mrs. Marie Cashatt.

Mr. and Mrs. MacHart are moving to Dishman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crites were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pandher, who recently returned from Los Angeles, Cal.

Pleasant Prairie.

A farewell party was given Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Freeberg by neighbors and friends at their home Friday night.

The evening was spent socially after which refreshments were served to: Mr. and Mrs. Freeberg, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sundard, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. William Higham, Mr. and Mrs. A. Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. Ward McChane, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. John Paulson and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hobson. Mrs. Freeberg have lived on the prairie for several years and are now moving to Spokane.

Miss Emaline Greenberg, who has been visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Greenberg, returned Dishman.

Mrs. V. E. Hopkins was seriously injured Friday morning on the way to Spokane when the car in which she was riding was hit by a small truck. Mrs. Hopkins suffered a bruised eye and a cut on a lower lip. Mr. Hopkins, who was driving, escaped without injury.

H. W. Denapis has construction of his six-room modern home on the Dishman way.

C. Price is excavating for basement of a seven-room modern home on the Apple way just east of Walnut road.

John Wilhelm, who left the winter in California, returned Sunday to the home of his father and Mrs. C. P. Lane.

Ella Jane Dillard, who returned to Dunceness hospital last Monday because of her trouble, was taken to her grandmother's apartment Saturday, where she will remain for a few days.

The cast in which Miss Olive Alger was placed during the first part of January, following an auto accident, has recently been removed, and she is now able to be out.

Mrs. H. W. Battan of Spokane was the guest of Mrs. F. Abbott Saturday.

Opportunity.

A St. Patrick's party was given by Mrs. Jack Pierre of Apple Center Thursday for her daughter, Marie.

The birthday parties of Mrs. Bobbie Roberts, Marjory Snyder, Edith

CAMP FIRE GIRLS SELECT LEADERS

Betty Mix Is President of Newly Organized Group —Mrs. Lane Guardian.

MOSCOW, Idaho, March 21.—(Special.)—Officers were elected by several of the Moscow Camp Fire Girls group here last week. A new group has been organized under the leadership of Mrs. R. F. Lane. The name chosen by the group is Tacanuma. Officers are: Betty Mix, president; Patricia Woodward, vice president; Geraldine Ross, secretary, and Betty Hatfield, treasurer; Mildred Carson, scribe, and Carol Jean and Kathleen Samm, song leaders.

Gail Friend is the newly elected president of the Paradise group; Bertie Berton, vice president; Mary Thompson, secretary; Rosalie House, treasurer; Helen Philbrook, scribe. Mrs. E. J. Iddings is guardian and Mrs. F. L. Kennard, assistant guardian.

Officers in the Nisnake group are: Lilian Kroh, president; Sarah Hale, vice president; Edwardine Bechtol, secretary; Dulcie Humphrey, treasurer; Helen Benson, scribe, and Marie Larson, song leader.

Onawanda guardians' group has Mrs. Fred Veatch as president; Mrs. Ivan C. Crawford, vice president; Mrs. H. Hamilton, secretary; Mrs. F. L. Kennard, treasurer; Mrs. F. W. Candee, scribe.

EXPECT TO STRIKE LONG-SOUGHT VEIN

Should Encounter Rich Ore at Almost Any Turn, Officials Think.

KELLOGG, Idaho, March 21.—(Special.)—The long crosscut tunnel on the property of the Syndicate Mining and Exploration company, located along the Kellogg-Wallace highway south of Big creek, has passed the 1,000-foot station, according to J. L. Moore, secretary of the corporation, according to surveys the downward tension of the vein should be encountered somewhere near this point and the miners employed expect to break into the lodes at any time. The formation has been very hard and slow progress could be made with the work. The property has been under development for a number of years. The present workings will cut the vein at a depth of over 700 feet beneath the surface showing.

Working Crosscut.

The north Bunker Hill crosscut tunnel is going ahead steadily, according to N. T. Kingsley, secretary, who has one shift of miners employed. The crosscut is designed to cut the vein exposed in the upper levels at a further depth of some 200 feet and at a vertical depth of 400 feet beneath the croppings. It is planned committee to make out the program for the next year: Mrs. C. T. Phillips, Mrs. E. C. Bigelow, Mrs. Charles Leavy, Mrs. F. S. Burton and Mrs. William Kling.

Delegates to the city federation in April and May were announced: Mrs. E. G. Pangborn, Mrs. R. P. Newlands, Mrs. Charles Leavy, Mrs. I. M. Baker.

COLLEGE COUPLES TELL BETROTHAL

Two Lambda Chi Alpha Men Will Wed—Radio Fraternity Pledges.

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, PULLMAN, March 21.—(Special.)—Two engagements were announced Saturday by Washington State college students. Leonard Morgan of Clarkston and Miss Doris Curtis of Houghton are to be married early this summer. Miss Eleanor Sangster announced her engagement to Clarence Pascoe of Dillingham.

Both young men are members of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. Morgan graduated in June, 1926, after winning two letters in varsity basketball. He coached Pullman high school basketeers during the 1925-26 season. Miss Curtis is a senior and a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Rho Epsilon, professional radio fraternity, announced the pledging of Harry Meall of Spokane and Lannes Anderson, Everett. Mildred Perkins of Valleyford is a new pledge of Kappa Beta, and John Patric of Seattle is a pledge of Beta Theta Pi. Other new pledges announced Saturday by Greek letter groups are: Omega Phi—Fred Morrisette, Yakima; Carl Hoefer, Omaha. Sigma Chi —Tom Brown, Yakima. Sigma Alpha Epsilon—James McCanna, Spokane; Morris Stromness, South Bend; Pesis Sebastian and Roy Awbrey, Texas.

BANQUET GIVEN YOUNG PEOPLE

HARRISON, Idaho, March 21.—(Special.)—The Truth Seekers, the adult Bible class of the Methodist Sunday school, entertained the Tri Mu class of young people at a banquet Friday evening. The adult class had as its guest Onondaga center with the young people. A program followed.

Mrs. Clyde York of Kellogg visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Williams, over the week-end.

ROCKFORD PEOPLE HOLD MARKET DAY

ROCKFORD, Wash., March 21.—(Special.)—Rockford's third "market day," Saturday, sponsored by the community association, was a success. It is estimated that more than 1500 people from the surrounding territory came to town. A an auction sale 25 work horses held by H. N. Gates sold were sold from $25 to $125, averaging $75 apiece.

Dr. L. Clanton gave first aid instructions to the Boy Scouts at the schoolhouse Saturday evening.

The ladies' aid of the Christian church served lunch at the Christian hall Saturday.

Too Polite.

"Now what should a little boy say when a lady has given him a penny for carrying her bundles?"

"Why, too polite to say it, madam."—Melbourne Table Talk.

The Chronicle prints today's news today

Tango Dancers Appear at the Silver Grill

The Spokane hotel management has arranged for the appearance each Saturday evening, for an indefinite period, at the Silver Grill of Parisc and Verlee, famous tango stars.

FORESTRY BOARD MEETS AT BOISE

MOSCOW, Idaho, March 21.—(Special.)—Ben E. Bush, state forester, and F. G. Miller, dean of the University of Idaho school of forestry, left here yesterday for Boise, where they will attend the meeting of the state cooperative board of forestry which convenes today. This meeting is the first of the two regular scheduled meetings each year. At this meeting new contracts with the owners of timber lands over the state will be entered into for protection this summer.

COLBURN WOMEN AID REST ROOM

COLBURN, Idaho, March 21.—(Special.)—An appropriation for the support of the women's rest room at Sandpoint was voted at the meeting of the Colburn Civic club held Friday at the home of Mrs. F. Minnick. The matter of establishing a reading room at Colburn was also discussed.

Mrs. Jas. Parrell, a widow, living alone on her ranch north of Colburn, was seized with a sudden fainting attack while feeding her chickens. Friday evening, and fell, striking her head on a box with sufficient force to knock her helpless. A passing schoolboy saw the accident and summoned help from the crew at work on the dam at the new mill-site near by. She was carried into her house and later taken to a Sandpoint hospital, where she is still seriously ill.

REARDAN PEOPLE GUESTS AT PART

Friends Surprise Mr. an Mrs. Davidson — Mr Hard Hurt in Acciden

REARDAN, Wash., March 21 (Special.)—Friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davidson Friday nig on the occasion of Mr. Davidson's birthday. A social evening was spent by the party. Those present we Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Finrow, Mr. Mrs. C. Scharman, Mr. and Mrs. R. Iliffe, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Safford, and Mrs. N. G. Moon, Mr. and M W. F. Hanning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hard and M J. P. Cruser were surprised of auto that ran off the highway a into the ditch Friday night when party was returning from Spoka Mrs. Hard was the only one injur receiving slight bruises about t side.

Henry Engdahl has returned Reardan after an absence of abo eight years, to reenter the employ the H. J. Matles lumber compa where he worked for several ye prior to his departure. Mr. Engd has been connected with Lish N. D., lumber concern since leavi Reardan.

ROSALIA COUPLE LICENSED TO WE

COLFAX, Wash., March 21.—(Special.)—Alfred R. Culton and Adel Tremm, Rosalia, secured marriage license at the office of Whitman county auditor, Saturday.

PLUMMER TEAMS BANQUET GUEST

PLUMMER, Idaho, March 21 (Special.)—Saturday night the m of the town gave a 6 o'clock sys dinner to the football and basket teams of the high school, followed short talks on athletics by several the boys and men present. L. Stanley, the coach, presented the ters to the boys of both teams.

The colors were given their reward St. Patrick's dance last night in I. O. O. F. hall. The postponem was due to the death of one of the members, Mrs. Charles Deskin, w was buried on March 15.

SIGMA CHI LEADS MOSCOW LEAGU

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, M COW, March 21.—(Special.)—Sig Chi will see the close of regular intra-mural basketball s games to play this week, while Phi Delta Theta quintet, who lost four games for during the season.

In league B the Beta Theta Pi to lose their first defeat. They seem certain of tak the league title this year, as defeated the Sigma Alpha Eps team, who are runners-up.

ADVERTISING ADVERTISING ADVERTISING

Bottled Sunlight!