

Miss Dulcie Varner has been having a tussel with the ague, from appearances it looks as though the ague had the best of it.

H. A. J. Copins from the region of Potwin was down attending the quarterly meeting at Spring Dale last Sunday and—well the meetings of all kinds at Spring Dale are very interesting to him.

J. W. Baker's little child has been quite sick.

There was a horse race last Saturday at the ball club grounds. Charles Pierce and John Adsit owned the horses that did the running. The Pierce horse came out ahead.
