

Mrs. H. C. Hayman, Mrs. W. H. Harden and the Misses Bess and Bell Mosier visited the school of District No. 102 and found Miss Rachael Adsit in charge. They felt the patrons of the school had cause for congratulations and that Miss Rachael is a conscientious teacher and student as plainly shown in the short time the visitors were there.

Don't forget the Literary society at the Hayman schoolhouse, District 102 every Thursday night.

J. C. Godfrey has added a new granary to his premises.

H. C. Hayman has built a new granary and corn crib.

Next Sunday is regular preaching day
