

James Martine Will: 8 August 1583- the will of James Martin of the town of Lydd in the parish of All Saints, county of Kent

... to my daughter Rachel L10 in ready money, one silver goblet next eh best one pt covered with silver, 6 silver spoons of those that be 7 marked, one feather bed next the best that lyeth in the chamber over the parlor, that bolster that lyeth upon the bed, the coverlet, that blanket, two pillows, two pillow coats, 4 pair of sheet neither of the finest nor of the coarsest, 3 tabe cloths, one dozen of table napkins, her mother's best coat with her kyrtle, and all such things as her mother did give her

... unto my daughter Batt (Bates) 10s ... Adryes Wood my servant shall have that little chamber he now lyeth in for life, one feather ed, one bolster, 2 pair of sheets, one blanket, one coverlet, L3.6s.8d

... to son in law James Batt 2 seames* of wheat, and 3 seames of malt.

Godfrey Matin my son to be sole executor, he to have all the rest of moveable goods, houses, lands not willed. Witnesses: Alexander Weston, writer, Richard Glover.

Proved 26 November 1583 at Canterbury and Godfrey Martin. executor, and Maria Martin alias Batt, also Rachell Martin natural daughters of the deceased, all came into court, etc.

* Seames is a unit of measure