

LYDD. 264.
1157.

In the Principal Probate Registry, London.

P.C.C. 115 Ruthem.

A.D.
1657.

KENT.

BATE, Richard, of Lydd, Kent, jurate, in his will names
"my mother Alice BATE in New England."

SE EDWARD HARRIS
the Bath, 1661, Cooper p. 101.

The portrait is at Weibach.

This gentleman, who was knighted for Mercur, at the same time as Harley his father, gave money for his valour, at the head of a regiment his own expense for the first time Upon the restoration of Charles I. pointed governor of Devon.

made a knight of the Bath. His parliaments of this city, and a celebrated speaker in the house of commons well knew the importance of In nation, he made a motion for an proposal, but it was afterwards carried off, and a petition was offered in the name of the petitioners, that the petitioners only, were more than 1000.

Nadler, is a very ancient family, they, who, were the first of the name of Duke, the name of the name, and the name of the name, "Religion," 1692, and 1700.

1700.