Notes

Pierre BEAUJEAN

Notes for Pierre Beaujean:

Pierre was described as a Negociant (trader) on his death record. He was a man of some substance, at least a gentleman. His birthplace, Chartres, is the site of a spectacular Cathedral. Beaujeans still live in Chartres and the surrounding region today. He had a total of 16 children as proven by baptismal records.

The Guadeloupe Archipelago in the French West Indies is home to several living Beaujeans. The original home of the Beaujeans was in St. Francois parish, town of Basse-Terre. Now they are Beaujeans scattered all around the islands. There is a district on the out island of La Desirade called Lotissement (allotment) Beaujean.

Marie Catherine DESPAGNE

Notes for (Marie) Catherine Despagne:

Date of birth is calculated from aged 77 at burial in 1777. She was already married when her first child was born in 1723 in St. Francois Parish on Guadeloupe. But there is no marriage record on Guadeloupe, where the St. Francois Parish records are complete back to 1713. She must have married Pierre in France before they came to Guadeloupe. Most likely the young couple moved to Guadeloupe after 1720.

Catherine gave birth to 16 children in Basse-Terre, 8 sons and 8 daughters over a 23 year span. She is usually listed as Catherine in most of the parish birth records. Her formal Christian name was Marie Catherine. Her surname was often written as D'espagne. D'espagne is an old French surname, she was probably not personally "Of Spain", but her distant male ancestors might have been. The Despagne name, like Beaujean, is found in France and Belgium.
