

Dunkirk evening observer. (Dunkirk, N.Y.) 1889-1901, December 26, 1891, Page 4, Image 4

Image provided by Dunkirk Free Library

Persistent link: <http://nyshistoricnewspapers.org/lccn/sn93063775/1891-12-26/ed-1/seq-4/>

Print this image | Download this image is also a great percentage of water than in heard of, says the one who chimney of a Santa Clause there.

who took the at his appet- oet his hair, ows and eye o bring suit

LaFayette street, Dayton, Ohio.

The County Office Staff.

Victor A. Ambro, County Clerk-elect, has announced his office staff as follows: Deputy clerk, Emerson J. McConnel; special deputy, W. B. Gleason; clerks, Richard O'Brien of the Sheriff's office and George F. Underwood and Miss Julia M. Beaujean, both of Buffalo. The old clerks to be retained are Miss Rublee, August Johnson, and M. A. Keyes. Maj. E. P. Putnam, the retiring clerk, will remove with his family to Jamestown his former home.

A dispatch was received killed. When Miss E truth, she was compl with grief. A physicia hurriedly. She is now from nervous prostrati enough, the family wi York on the Limited St Mr. Wilcox's satchel right and is now in th Its check number is 79 was found in the pocke vest.

—O where! O where! walk cleaners gone.