

James Granger arrived home recently from California where he went some weeks ago to look after the interests of Mrs. Martha Beaujean and Mrs. Van Volkenburg in the estate left there by Mr. Kenyon, deceased. He reports a pleasant trip and was very much pleased with the country. The property is worth about $50,000, consisting of houses and lots in Port Kenyon, and many acres of farm lands.—Mayville Cor.

Benjamin Kenyon, the missing heir to the Kenyon fortune whom Willis Tenant found in Canada, was here over Sunday visiting Mrs. Van Valkenburg, Mrs. Beaujean and other relatives. On Monday Mr. Kenyon made this office a call. The fact that he gave a complete history of the Kenyon family before knowing of his cousin's death in Seattle, is sufficient proof that he is the so-called missing heir.—Mayville Sentinel.
