as the lake and stopped. Mr. Keyes received several bad scratches; Mr. Albro's leg was quite badly bruised.

G. R. Beaujean and wife started out with a horse and buggy for a drive and when going down the first hill west of the village the horse began to kick and got its foot caught over the dash-board which swung the buggy into the ditch, tipping it over throwing out the occupants, and throwing the horse down. As there was a high bank across the ditch neither of the parties was injured but the horse's legs were considerably cut and one wheel and one thill broken.

S. A. Hayes had just hitched up for the purpose of taking a drive and left the horse for a moment to close the barn door. The horse started before he returned and continued at a moderate gait until it reached Sixbey's store where it ran against one of the iron posts which support the
