

A SWEET LIFE.

It Ended In Death of Akron Young Woman.

Lottie Elizabeth Denaple died Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the city hospital. The cause of her death was peritonitis. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Denaple, superintendent of the Werner works. She was born on March 26, 1882, and reached the age of 20 years, 1 month and 28 days. The young lady had a large circle of friends and acquaintances among which she was a favorite on account of her genial and pleasing disposition. The many friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Denaple sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family. The funeral services will be held at the residence of Mr. Denaple, 628 East Exchange street, at 3 o'clock p. m., Tuesday. Burial at Glendale.
