

John Heath, of Towanda, has always opposed bonds for anything, like a true Greenbacker, but after a good solid thinking spell he decides in favor of the bonds of his township in aid of the St. L., Ft. S. & W. R. R. There are many others in his township of his present way of thinking.