

John Heath gives it out as his intention to live comfortable in the future, and has therefore been engaged for some time in making substantial additions to his home. John always keeps up with the procession in the matter of improvements, and the same we are pleased to chronicle.

It is rumored that our dashing