

The saddest event I have had to record is the taking of his own life by Frank Heath. He shot himself on June 26. Mr Heath had always been a kind loving husband and father. Ill health had for a long time been undermining his mind with this final result. His wife, formerly Miss Rachel Adsit, has the deepest sympathy of this community. A very large crowd followed his body to Towanda cemetery where he was laid to rest by his Knights of Pythias Lodge brothers, his last and windowless abode being covered with flowers.
