Notes:

Severin REITER

Severin Sr. was listed as a citizen of Sulgen and a Master Carpenter of Sinzheim in Germany

Severin Jr. and Josephine left Schramberg for America on 8 August 1855. They ventured to La Havre, France where they boarded the sailing vessel Germania. They sailed from Le Havre, France to New York City. They would have been processed at the newly opened Castle Garden Immigration facility before making their way to Scranton, Pa. to begin their life in America. They arrived in America on Oct. 12, 1855

Severin REIDER

Severin died of consumption (TB)

Johannes John Reider

This Johannes may be the John Reider that emigrated to America before Severin. John lived in Scranton as a Watchmaker and Jeweler as well as moving to Paterson, New Jersey. These were also the places Severin moved.
