

G. R. Taylor is finishing up the inside of Mrs Joseph Haller's new house. Gib is a rustler and always crowded with work.

There is to be a grand Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr and Mrs Salem Burgner. To say they will have a grand time goes without dispute with all who are acquainted with them.

Jack Turner the mail carrier from Wilmington to Burlingame has a new schedule of prices for carrying passengers. For each male passenger he charges twenty five cents, and for each female he gives twenty-five cents this he says he is compelled to do to even things up.

Our merchant W. A. Shepherd shipped out three car loads of corn last week and is still in the market for all ice and got considerably shaken up but today we are able for business again.

Wayne May's wife is dangerously ill.