

WILMINGTON, January 7th.

To the Editor of The Chronicle.

The twelve year old son of Mr. Ni-hart died with diphtheria, on last Sunday and was buried in the Wil-mington cemetery on Monday.

Little Charlie Todd is quite sick with lung fever.

Miss Ella Cripps has returned from a month's visit with friends near Council Grove.

C. A. Shepherd and Wyatt Roush have been on the sick list, but are im-proving now.

Wm. Shepherd our Wilmington store keeper thinks of returning to his farm north of Harveyville in the spring, if he can profitably dispose of his busi-ness here.

The children of Wayne May are quite sick.

Mrs. Mollie Robinson is sick. There is considerable sickness around here.