

J. V. Robinson one of our hustling young farmers states a few of the farmers south west are re-planting. Personally he has less than a days planting and considers it caused by the use of two year old seed corn. J. V. milks 12 cows and is one of the pushing young men of this neighborhood.