

Shepherd & Son sustained quite a loss Saturday by a sack of flour being removed from the flour room when the entire lot of flour gave way and falling smashed several cases full of eggs, also a counter of dishes.