

How is this for good harness?
Last Monday Col. Theodore Shepherd the prince merchant of Wilmington sent in a set of harness for repair to John T. Fields. They were bought 15 years ago and this is the first time any repair work has been done on them. They were hand made by Mr. Fields. We believe this speaks well for the high class of work turned out by Harveville harness maker.