

We are told by good authority that Shepherd and Son at Wilmington are going to retire from business and will sell out their stock at Wilmington. This is caused by the very poor health Charlie is experiencing. We are sorry to hear this as they are fine people.