southeast of Harveyville. where it is expected all kinds of good fortune will attend their efforts to gain a competency. They are highly respected and popular young people and are attended by the good wishes of a host of admiring friends. An aunt of the bride, Mrs. John Gorman, and her two daughters entertained the wedding party. They attended the matinee in the afternoon where to their surprise they were showered with rice from their entrance to their seats. Free tickets were tendered them for the evening when they were the guests of honor; occupying a box beautifully draped and decorated, the use of which was given the bridal party. Also two extra scenes were given for their special enjoyment. Several times during the play they were showered with rice much to the merriment of the good natured audience. The bride looked lovely in a handsome gown of white albatross with hat and gloves to match.
