

A. Roush sold 41 hogs to Squire Cantrill that averaged over three hundred pounds a piece and brought him over eight hundred dollars.

Mr. Suddock treated his scholars to a spelling school last Friday night which was largely attended and highly enjoyed by a great many besides the school.

The little year-and-a-half-old daughter of Will Shepherd was badly burned on the breast and stomach by her clothing catching fire. She and a three-year-old brother were left alone a little while and began playing in the fire when her clothes were ignited.