

Our enterprising merchant Will Shepherd is preparing to feed five hundred head of cattle here this winter. That will make a home market for our farmers' surplus crop of corn. He informed us that he would erect suitable scales and cribs near and will be ready to advance money on corn soon.