

Wilmington.

Mrs. Alice Jarvis is suffering with erysipelas in her arm.

Stephen Bright and Harvey Hodgson have gone for a trip to Oklahoma.

A. Turner is building hog lots preparatory to feeding a car load or two of hogs.

Miss Blanche Turner who has had a relapse is slowly recovering. We hope she will soon be alright again.

Robert Yocum and family are here in answer to a telegram announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Yocum's father, Jos. McPherson. They will return to their home in Argentine soon.

Mr. Ferris and family are nicely settled in their new home in Wilmington, and Mrs. Ferris is weaving carpet. She does fine work and we hope she will get all the work she can do while here.

Wm. Shepherd and a force of hands are herding several hundred head of W. H. Melrose's cattle on the stock fields in our neighborhood. They keep them pretty busy as they are a wild lot.
