

there is a growing disposition among the people that will finally drive the party bosses out of business and before long men will learn to vote for men of principle regardless of partyisms, bossisms and all other "isms."

"I strongly recommend Beggs' Cherry Cough Syrup; it cured me of a throat and lung trouble of many years standing."—Mrs. J. Breman, Rifle, Colo. Cures coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, pneumonia, whooping-cough, croup and consumption. For sale by PAUL ORLOPP, Druggist.

Fortieth Anniversary.

On Sunday, December 24th, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Shepherd celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary. They gathered all of their children and grandchildren, and a few other friends and neighbors into their cozy home in Wilmington where a most enjoyable day was spent. A bountiful dinner was partaken of, such as Mrs. Shepherd is famous for providing for all hungry mortals who surround her table. Their youngest son, Charles, and wife entertained the little folks with pop corn, fun and music. Although they steadily kept the parlor door locked much to the wonder and curiosity of their young minds. In the evening after a feast of fresh oysters and other delectable viands, the blinds were drawn and many bright lamps lighted to add brilliancy to the scene, they threw open the parlor and presented to view a fine Christmas tree, reaching from floor to ceiling literally groaning under its load of presents. A more beautiful tree we never saw, and there were presents for all, old and young, big and little—even a name for the youngest child present (the three months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shepherd) was read, and the little lady smiled on all and seemed as pleased with her new name, Odessa Pearl, as did the larger ones with their presents. After enjoying the tree and its many good things we were treated to more music and at a late hour, after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd many more years of happiness, wended our way home. CONTRIBUTED.

Horses Wanted.

One hundred head of good, big, heavy horses wanted at once. Will pay the highest market price in cash for them. JACK KRAUS, Shepard's Red Barn, Burlingame, Ks.