

HARRY C. UNDERWOOD,
Assistant of the Tech "Y."

---

Above is an excellent likeness of Mr. Harry C. Underwood, the Assistant Secretary of the Georgia Tech Y. M. C. A. Mr. Underwood has been with us since the opening of school in September, and already his friends are numbered by the hundreds.

Last June Mr. Underwood graduated from Wesleyan University, of Middletown, ~~N. Y.~~ <sup>Conn.</sup> Like many college men just finishing school, his time at college was punctuated by service during the World War.

During his stay at Wesleyan, Mr. Underwood was prominently identified with various activities of the school. He was advertising manager of "Olla Podria," the Wesleyan annual; for three years he was managing editor of the Y. M. C. A. handbook; for the last three years, he was a member of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet.

At one time during the war, he was examiner in charge of U. S. Employment Bureau in the town of Oswego, N. Y., and held this office for six months.
