

The Soc and Buskin Club

PRESENTS

"The Mishaps of Minerva"

A Farce Comedy

AT THE

Lafayette H. S. Assembly Hall

FRIDAY EVENING
FEBRUARY FOURTH
NINETEEN HUNDRED SIXTEEN
EIGHT-FIFTEEN P. M.

The Cast

Mortimer J. Sterling, an easy-going business man,
Kenneth R. Ward
Victor Brown, a young doctor, friend of the family and especially of Minerva, . . . Clement H. Darby Harry Stevenson, a "cub" reporter attentive to Clara,
Spencer Goodreds
Barnes, the Butler, Harry C. Underwood
Mike Shannon, a very new policeman, George M. Harris
Mrs. Lydia Sterling, domestic and quiet, Norma Connolly
Minerva Sterling, willing to oblige, Lucile B. Conkling
Clara Sterling, her young sister, Edith W. Douglas Molly the maid, Alison J. Paxton
Belle Brantly, reporter for the "Screamer," Paula S. Mead
Mrs. Wright, a club woman, Margia C. Wilner
Miss Palmer, a philanthropic worker, Helen P. Blackman
Mrs. Jennie Van Duesen Spuyker, a personage,
Members of the reception committee.

Time—The present.

Music by Lafayette Orchestra

Synopsis of Scenes

Act I. Living room of the Sterling home, afternoon before the reception.
Act II. The same—the morning after.

Officers

Faculty		Student
Charles Elbert Rhodes	President
Miss Eugenia Sage	Vice-President	Harry C. Underwood
Miss Louise Reimold	Secretary	Homer Buckenmiller
Peter S. McGuire	Treasurer	Gordon Anderson

Head Usher,	Charles E. Rhodes, Jr.
Business Manager,	Edward N. Fay
Advance Agent,	Harry C. Underwood
Critic and Director,	Miss Julia Wechter