Samuel WOODMANSEE

Served in Capt. John Stout's Company, Monmouth, NJ in the Revolution. Deeded land in 1806 to a Henry Seguire that was adjacent to that of John Jeffrey.

Uncited bio from Fetters: Sam'l, b. 27 Dec 1754, d. 26 Apr 1837, son of David and Penelope of Dover Twp, Ocean Co, NJ, married Alice Jeffrey, b. 8 Mar 1761, d. 1 Mar 1836, of his native county of a very important family with a long history. Emigrated Jul 1818 to Highland Co, Fairfield, OH. Preceded by son Isaac, his wife and his four children who settled on Lees Creek where the McVey farm is now. At least 6 kids followed or came with their father to Ohio. Sam'l Sr. and Alice established their home on the ___ Road near Highland, later the Charles P. Woodmansee farm and now the Robert Manuel Farm.

Biographical Hist of Scioto Valley (p. 379): Sam'l Woodmansee moved westward to Highland Co, OH in 1819 and shortly after bought 700 acres of land a part of the original Conway Military Survey. Nearly all of the original purchase still being owned by his descendants. Samuel and Alice were married in 1776, the year of the signing of the Dec of Ind. All the Children came to Ohio at various times except Penelope, Hannah and Lydia, all of whom married in New Jersey. Phoebe married Dr. Conway, a desc of Joseph Conway, the original owner of the "Conway Grant." GW Woodmansee has in his possession the original patent to 2400 acres of land given by the government to Lt. Joseph Conway. The Patent states that the land was given in acknowledgement of seven years of service rendered in the Revolutionary War by Lt. Joseph Conway, written on parchment made from the skin of a sheep, dated at Philadelphia Aug 1790, signed by John Adams.

Alice JEFFREY

Alice was likely named after her mother's mother, Alice (Osborn) Longstreet. Jamie Young: A deed dated 20 Apr 1787 lists Elsie (Alice) Woodmancy (sister), Catherine Reed (sister), and Mary Jeffrey (mother) to John Jeffrey 400 Acres in Dover, Southside Toms River, joining Good Luck etc. This deed would positively tie Alice to Francis Jeffrey, who married Mary Longstreet. Most data on ancestors stems from this source.
