

A continuation of the Estate of Samuel Woodman's dec'd in Account with David Woodman's as Executor of said Estate

To amount as, Balance due and now in the hands of said Executor

5167 00

or

By Cash paid Charles Valentine one of the devisees of said including a Special devise of $500 as per vouchers No. 1-2

641 25

paid Samuel Woodman's his legacy in full 4 9 4

385

" Lydia Davis by Special devise " " 5

100

" Samuel W. Follen " " " 6

50

" Mary Felton one of the devisees including a Special legacy of $500

779

780 68

Settlements at Marsh Farm 1740

paid Hannah	Samuel Potter	Special charge	voucher No 10	100
"	Penelope Potter	"	" " 11	100
"	Frances Woodman	"	" " 12	100
"	John Brickell & John Brickell his wife	"	" " 13, 14	997 57
"	James Woodman	"	" " 15	98 75
Retained in the hands of David & Isaac Woodman out of said estate including special charge of £500 each				1764 92
				£ 4594 19 2

Marsh Farm 1740

This day David Woodman & Co of Lamb. Woodman did settled his account with the court and upon settlement there is found to be in his hands as for belonging to said estate the sum of £557 14¹/₂ to be paid by said Executors according to the provisions in the said will to James Woodman & the heirs of Alice Valentines.

John Matthews