

News of Spokane Valley

VALLEY HI ROLLS REACH 200 MARK

Two New Registrations Boost Record Student Mark at Central.

CENTRAL VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL. Oct. 15 (Special)—Registration at Central Valley reached the two hundred mark today morning, with the registration of Alta Townsend of Greenacres and Hulda Klever of Oppen-

P. T. A. Entertained.
Greenacres Parent-Teachers association was entertained by members of the faculty of Central Monday evening. Mrs. Scott gave two solos, "Behave Yourself, Folks" and "The Buds," and children written by Mrs. Spokane. Miss Zora Cooper gave selections.
Faculty Attends.

Walla today to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Weisandt.

J. L. Hartley returned Tuesday from Everett where he spent the summer.

John Hartley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hartley, is suffering with a badly infected tooth for which he is taking daily treatment.

Opportunity

Two real estate transactions of strictly modern homes have been made the past week. R. W. Denaple, Walnut Road, is erecting a modern four-room home and has sold it to Charles Cruver of Spokane. The house is almost complete but will not be occupied by the Cruver family until next April. Le Roy Convent has sold his four-room modern home and two and three-fourth acres on the Apple way to A. I. Lenard of Coeur d'Alene for a reported consideration of $5000. Both deals were made through Tinsley & Johnson of Dishman.

The Modern Electric & Water company held a meeting Monday evening, electing E. B. Crawford as trustee to fill the vacancy of the

GET FO

R-K-C
Is for

Amate

Comm

as M

Spok

nsos

the c

Friday

W ma

etwe

young

dark

dent

place

we b

learn

sh, p re d

photo

ped t sh will