

Newlyweds At Home After Rites

Returning from a northern honeymoon to make their home in North Hollywood are Mr. and Mrs. H. Burt Underwood (Lois Jean Denaple).

They were married at Betts Chapel of the First Methodist Church of Hollywood. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Denaple of 11023 Kling St., North Hollywood, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white lace fashioned with a long train and finger tip veil held in place by a sweetheart tiara. Her bouquet was of white water lilies and bouvardia.

Matron of honor was her sister Alberta O'Neil who wore aqua taffeta and carried yellow water lilies. Laura Mohat and Beverly Underwood were bridesmaids. They wore yellow with blue water lilies.

George Underwood acted as his brother's best man. Art Anderson and Bill Olds ushered.

Mr. Underwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Underwood of Hollywood, attended the University of Southern California. His bride, a graduate of North Hollywood High School, was a student at the same university.
