

R. W. Denaple Elected Head of North Hollywood Chamber

R. W. Denaple today had been elected president of North Hollywood Chamber of Commerce for 1957.

Denaple is vice president of the North Hollywood Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Other new officers will be Harry C. Geyer, manager, Occidental Bank, first vice president; Everett T. Carpenter, postmaster, vice president; Peter Lyman Fritz, manager, Federal Savings and Loan, vice president; B. S. Hand Sr., contractor, vice president; John H. Price, manager, Southern California Gas Co., treasurer, and Margaret Barry, secretary.

Directors appointed to serve for the year are Ivan Betts, Universal-International Studios;

Norman Caldwell, manager, the May Co.; Don Clark, North Hollywood Realty Board; Hand, Price and Vern Tullbert, manager, Alexander's Market at Valley Plaza.

Elected as directors for three-year terms are R. W. Blanchard Jr., Blanchard Lumber Co.; Atty. James W. Reitz, John Goss, Yeakel and Goss Department Store; Ray Woodruff, Woodruff's Women's Apparel; Max Maiers, J. C. Penney Co., and Harvey H. Chapman, president, Crawshaw Mortgage and Investment Co.

PLANT CURES

Chemicals similar to aspirin are used in the fight against plant diseases.