

MIDWAY GROUP IN PICNIC AT PARK

MIDWAY CITY, Aug. 18.—The first Sunday school picnic to be held by the Midway City Community Sunday school, which was organized June 25, was held Wednesday at Anaheim city park. The day was spent with interesting games supervised by the entertainment committee, Mrs. Russell I. Johnson and Mrs. C. R. Hart. A ball game with the Salvation Army Sunday school of Santa Ana was a feature of the afternoon, with the local school winning the game.

Prizes were awarded in the other games played, with winners including Ruth Troop, Harvey Arnett, Marian Wright, Robert Hazard, Bobble Enoch and Mrs. Welch.

Attending were E. E. Leith, the superintendent; Wheeler and Pauline Birdwell, Marian Wright, Mrs. Carl Welch and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Heath and children, Mrs. and her nephews, Charles, Richard and Ellison Hockner, of Arcadia,
