Want to Buy the Tonawanda.
 Captain William Scott has received an offer of $6,000 for the tug Tonawanda from the Great Lakes Towing Company, of Buffalo. A year ago Captain Scott paid $4,000 for the boat. He asks $7,000 cash for her. If the sale is made he will bring an iron tug here.

Children's Day in Grace Church.
 This anniversary of the Sunday school was postponed from last Sunday on account of a scarcity of flowers until the coming Sunday. In order that the reputation of Grace Sunday school be kept up for decorations it will be necessary for all friends of the school to send large donations of any reasonable flowers to the chapel tomorrow afternoon after three o'clock when ladies will be there to care for them. Please do not forget this.

Opening of the Bass Season.
 Many Oswego fishermen are planning to visit Selkirk and Sandy Pond for the opening of the bass season. According to reports from those places the fish are biting better than they have been before in a number of years.

time the freightyard will extend to the South line of Mohawk street. That's the outlook and that's what Mayor Smith and the Aldermen are asked to prevent by rejecting the petition of the company at the meeting tonight.

The railroad company owns every piece of abutting property between the river in West Union street and seventh street, except Healey's hotel, a gas house property and the home of John Hughes, all of which is in the market. But a few weeks ago the directors of the gas company had men going to secure options on property east of Third street upon which to locate their holders so that in case the railroad gets the right of way that they can acquire what property they
