

Burton L. Rider

Burton L. Rider, 72, of 150 West Eighth street, died early Saturday morning in Faxton hospital, Utica, from injuries received in falling from a scaffolding while making repairs to the roof of a barn at Chadwicks, N. Y., Thursday morning. He suffered a fracture of the skull and crushed chest. Mr Rider was born at Cedar Lake, N. Y., and was a carpenter by trade. He came to Oswego nearly 40 years ago and was a member of First Methodist church and of the Carpenters' Union. He was a veteran of the Spanish American War, having served with the 48th Separate Company. The death of Mr. Rider will be sincerely regretted by his many friends in Oswego, among whom he was highly esteemed. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Lottie Rider, one daughter, Mrs. Harry Underwood, of Los Angeles, Calif., six grandchildren and two great grandchildren and three brothers, Fred and Elmer Rider of Nodoway, wicks and Leon Rider of Nodoway, Iowa.

Funeral and burial will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock at Cedar Lake, N. Y.